CLIFTON MAN IN TROUBLE

Attempted Assault on Young Girl---Is Now in Jail

George Haigh, for many years a resident of Clifton, was arrested at Dunean, Tuesday night, by Deputy Sheriff Gas Hobbs for alleged assault upon the person of his adopted daughter, who is between birteen and fourteen years of age:

Haigh and the girl left Clifton Tuesday morning for Danean, where the girl was to bave been placed in school. The accused secured two rooms in the hotel at Duncan, and during the night the landlady was awakened by the Paso News says: Having sur- cries of the girl. She immediately sought the assistance of Deputy posed Southern Pacific main line Sheriff Hobbs, who broke open the through Phoenix, the surveying door, and finding Haigh in the corps is today in the vicinity of girl's room promptly placed him Buckeye, and will continue down under arrest, and locked him up in the local jail. In the morning the people bemain line somewhere in the vicincame greatly excited over the alleged outrage, and for a time it The midnight building of a spur appeared that there was danger of by the Santa Fe in the southwestviolence towards the prisoner, but ern part of the city will not inter wiser counsel prevailed, and the fere with the entrance of the Southpeople decided to let the law take ern Pacific, although it may delay its course. - Lra.
